

Latin Hip Hop artist International Nova's newest single, "DALÈ," is reaching record levels on Apple Music.

Atlanta, Georgia Mar 23, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Latin Hip Hop artist International Nova's newest single, "DALÈ," is reaching record levels on Apple Music.

The single was released onto all major music streaming platforms in mid-March, and by the morning of March 22, it already ranked in the Top 10 spot in Apple Music's Top 100 Latin category. By that afternoon, it had moved up to No. 6.

“God is amazing: to be on the charts with some of Latin music’s legends is amazing,” said the singer, songwriter, actor, and producer who still describes himself as “the Dominican kid from the Bronx with big dreams.”

“DALE” was ranked right between Eden Muñoz 's “Chale ” and “No Estoy en Gente ” by El Kimiko, Yordy, and Michel Boutic.

International Nova has received plenty of positive attention for his hip-hop and Latin music over the last few years.

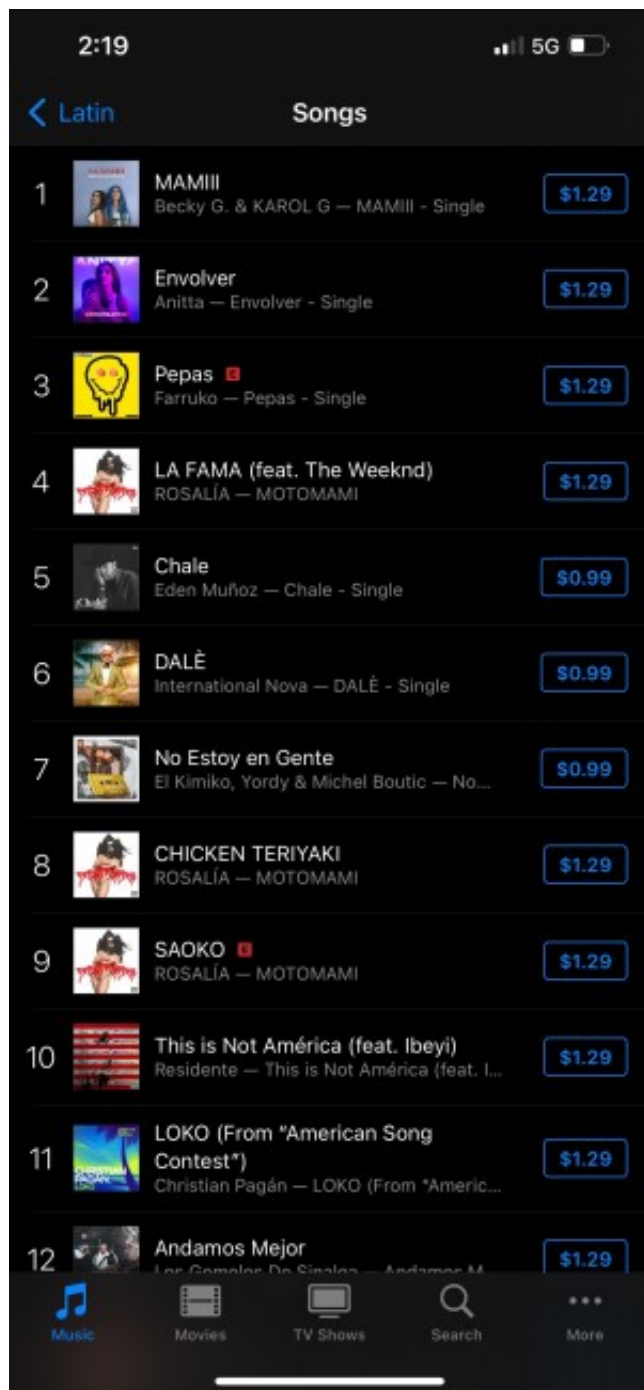

One of his most popular singles so far was 2021’s “Controla”, which reached over 1.4 Million digital streams on Spotify.

He grew up in the Bronx neighborhood of New York City, and was involved in several bands. Nova often talks about growing up surrounded by all styles of music. He later moved to Atlanta to pursue a solo music career.

He has worked with notable artists such as Musiq Soulchild, Petey Pablo, French Montana, and the Terror Squad just to name a few. From the booth to center stage, International Nova has performed alongside Pitbull, Backstreet Boys, Mario, and countless others. In 2017, he crashed the billboard charts with his hit “Wine For Me”.
