Get to know Prosthodontist Dr. Maryse Manasse, who serves patients in New Jersey.

New York City, New York Mar 15, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A skilled prosthodontist, Dr. Manasse sees patients at her private practice - Executive Dental Studio - in Cranford, New Jersey, where she creates custom treatment plans tailored for each patient according to their dental needs.

Executive Dental Studio aims to create a positive change to the teeth and enhance the smile, which can have dramatic results on the overall appearance. They diagnose, treat, and manage patients' overall oral health care needs, including gum care, root canals, fillings, crowns, veneers, bridges, family dentistry, and preventive education.

Back in the early days of her academic career, Dr. Manasse received her Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry from the College of Saint Elizabeth and graduated with her Doctor of Medicine in Dentistry degree from the New Jersey Dental School. She then continued to enrich her knowledge and expertise as she pursued specialty training in Prosthodontics at the New Jersey Dental School for an additional three years.

Distinguished as a Fellow and Diplomate of the International Congress of Oral Implantologists, she also possesses a Fellowship with the International College of Dentistry and the Greater New York Academy of Prosthodontics. She is also a Council Member and current Chair of Membership of the American Prosthodontic Society. She fulfills her duty by publishing various peer-reviewed and scientific articles.

Continuously advancing her efforts, Dr. Manasse is an active member of the New Jersey Dental Association, the American Dental Association, the Greater New York Academy of Prosthodontics, the American Prosthodontic Society, the International Congress of Oral Implantologists, the Christian Medical & Dental Association, the American Association of Women Dentists, the National Dental Association, the Academy of General Dentistry, and the International College of Dentists.

As one of the renowned faculty members at the New York University, she is currently holding the title of Clinical Assistant Professor in the Arthur Ashman Department of Periodontics and Implant Dentistry for over a decade. Additionally, she holds a Masters in Education with a focus on Adult Learning which she uses to contribute to the production, expansion, reciprocity, and utilization of knowledge in the learning of adults. As a course director, she is also a vigorous lecturer who actively participates in local study groups. More recently, she created an online international dental study club where residents and recent graduates can join and learn from each other in order to enhance their knowledge and expertise.

In her professional experience, Dr. Manasse holds outreach programs in various local communities as well as abroad, particularly in the Caribbean Island with multiple medical mission groups.

Prosthodontics, also known as dental prosthetics or prosthetic dentistry, is the area of dentistry that focuses on dental prostheses. Prosthodontists specialize in replacing missing teeth and associated oral structures by determining the type of dental prostheses required, having customized dental prostheses manufactured, and fitting them in patients' mouths. They also treat temporomandibular disorders and various issues associated with damaged and problematic teeth.

An authority in her field, Dr. Manasse has been the recipient of the New Jersey Top Dentists Award (2021,2022), Find a Top-Doc Award (2022) the Patients' Choice Award (2017, 2016), Morris/Essex

Top Dentists Award (2018, 2019, 2020, 2021), The Face of Prosthodontics Award (2021), Women to Watch (2022), and Who's Who Nationwide Registries (2021).

In her spare time, she enjoys spending quality time with her husband and three children. She also loves reading and going on long nature walks to immerse herself in the beauty of nature.
