

My Art School offers fun and interactive classes to kids in Singapore

Singapore, Singapore Mar 2, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - If you are looking for an art school that takes an unconventional yet scientific approach to learning, contact My Art School. The school is best known for their art class for kids, but they also organise combined sessions for beginners and advanced learners.

My Art School makes learning fun by encouraging students to explore their creativity and imaginative skills. Instead of focusing on attaining perfection, the school follows the philosophy of allowing students to experiment and learn through mistakes. So if you have a youngster at home who loves to play with colours, enrolling in an art class in Yishun, Singapore, is the best way to ensure that they productively spend their time sketching and painting.

Commenting on the accessible and friendly teaching methods followed by the instructors at My Art School, their spokesperson recently said, “Our teachers are trained professionals who understand that every child is unique. We maintain small teacher-to-student ratios so that every child can receive focused attention and improve on the specific areas they need to. We follow the Kipling method to help students hone their creativity and make works of art that adequately reflect their ideas”.

You can enroll your child in classes at My Art School if you are looking for reliable and experienced art teachers. The classes are designed and conducted by trained artists and educators who are experts at handling small children.

About the school

My Art School is a renowned institution that provides art classes for children in Singapore to children aged three years old and beyond. You can get your child admitted for more advanced lessons if they belong to an older age group and have the capacity to grasp more complex concepts. My Art School offers very reasonable weekly classes held in multiple slots throughout the week. You can contact them to know about their charges in greater detail and select timings according to your preference. They also have a chat support feature on the website for further queries.

Contact information

Address: 1 North Point Dr, 02-165, Singapore 768019

Phone number: 98369245

Website: <https://myartschool.sg/>

Media Contact

My Art School

steanie@myartschool.sg

+65 9836 9245

1 North Point Dr, 02-165, Singapore 768019

Source : My Art School

See on IssueWire