New York City, New York Mar 10, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A knowledgeable hospitalist, Dr. Atluri works with patients at North Bend Medical Center in Coos Bay, Oregon.

North Bend Medical Center (NBMC) offers comprehensive care in five Southern Oregon coastal communities, including their main clinic in Coos Bay and satellite clinics in Bandon, Coquille, Gold

Beach, and Myrtle Point. From their Immediate Care Clinic and community-based primary care services to the multi-specialty care available in their main clinic, NBMC is the convenient source for complete care close to home.

A native of India, Dr. Atluri graduated with her medical degree from the Government Medical College in 2008. After relocating to the United States, she completed her residency in internal medicine at the Rutgers New Jersey Medical School in 2015.

An expert in her field, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Hospital medicine is a medical specialty that exists in some countries as a branch of internal or family medicine, dealing with the care of acutely ill hospitalized patients. The primary focus is caring for hospitalized patients and co-management with other specialties. Hospitalists take an active part in medical care and ensure a safe discharge for the patients they take care of. They are being increasingly involved in administrative roles, given their expertise and collaboration with various teams in the hospital.
