New York City, New York Mar 22, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Igbinde is a board-certified adult nurse practitioner currently serving patients at West Hempstead Medical in West Hempstead, New York. He enjoys treating a wide array of illness, injury general medicine, and substance abuse treatments, specializing in primary care, obesity, addiction medicine, GI, cardiology, psychiatry, physical therapy, and ultrasound.

“Every patient and their family is different with their own unique needs. My goal is to design an individual treatment plan to help each and every one of my patients to achieve the best outcome possible” expressed the doctor.

To begin his career, he earned his Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from Adelphi University in 2007 and obtained his Master of Science in Nursing degree in Adult Nursing from the same educational venue in 2011. He received his Doctor of Nursing Practice degree from Grand Canyon University in 2015.

An active member of the American Nurses Association, Dr. Igbinde is board-certified as an adult nurse practitioner by the American Nursing Credentialing Center, which is a certification body for nursing board certification and the largest certification body for advanced practice registered nurses in the United States.

A Board-Certified Adult Nurse Practitioner (ANP-BC) focuses on the primary care of adults (ages 12 and over) and holds board certification. The main roles of ANPs focus on preventive care involving health promotion and disease prevention as well as the management of patients with acute and chronic health issues.

On a more personal note, Dr. Igbinde attributes his successful career to his hard work.
