Get to know Cardiologist Dr. Robert W. Kahan, who serves patients throughout the State of Connecticut.

New York City, New York Mar 9, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A seasoned cardiologist, Dr. Kahan is in practice at The Hoffman Heart and Vascular Institute, seeing patients at their offices in Canton and Bloomfield, Connecticut.

A longstanding regional leader in cardiovascular care, The Hoffman Heart and Vascular Institute is committed to achieving exceptional outcomes. Their cardiologists and surgeons treat a wide range of conditions, including arrhythmias, valve disease, vascular diseases, and heart failure. They deliver highly customized treatments to provide unique care plans that fit patients' physical and emotional needs.

Back in 1986, Dr. Kahan graduated with his medical degree from the Hahnemann University School of Medicine. He then went on to further his education by completing a residency in internal medicine at the Staten Island University Hospital in 1989, and a fellowship in cardiovascular disease at the University of Connecticut Health Center in 1992.

Distinguished as a Fellow of the American College of Cardiology (FACC), the doctor is board-certified in cardiovascular disease and internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Cardiology is a branch of medicine that deals with disorders of the heart, as well as some parts of the circulatory system. The field includes medical diagnosis and treatment of congenital heart defects, coronary artery disease, heart failure, valvular heart disease, and electrophysiology. Cardiologists are doctors who diagnose, assess, and treat patients with diseases and defects of the heart and blood vessels (the cardiovascular system).

As a testament to his success, Dr. Kahan has been the recipient of the Top Doctor Award by Connecticut Magazine in 2021.
