New York City, New York Mar 3, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A practicing internist, Dr. Dawson is affiliated with Beaufort-Jasper-Hampton Comprehensive Health Services, Inc., serving as the Chief of Adult Medicine at the Port Royal Medical Center.

Beaufort-Jasper-Hampton Comprehensive Health Services, Inc. (BJHCHS) has been a leader in providing high-quality, cost effective, health care. Initially established to provide health care to the underserved, BJHCHS has expanded its role, becoming one of the largest and most respected health care providers in the state of South Carolina. Its mission is to provide quality, accessible, and comprehensive health care services to the South Carolina Low Country Community.

Back in the early days of her academic career, Dr. Dawson earned her medical degree from the Meharry Medical College School of Medicine in 1982. She completed her residency in internal medicine at the Henry Ford Hospital in 1986.

Subsequent to her education, the doctor attained board certification in internal medicine through the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
