

SEAN AUSTIN - New Prince of Lover's Rock Reggae Music

Sean Austin

Kingston, Jamaica Mar 15, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Emerging to the forefront of reggae music with an arsenal of excellent songs, the versatility that Sean Austin aka XO brings to the industry is one that many upcoming artists and those already ahead in the industry, will have to contend with.

His newly released album, Purple Hearts is a medley of dancehall, lovers rock reggae, and hip hop, where Sean collaborates with artists such as Anastasia Hera Smith and Lion Heights, and producers Troyton Hinds of TroytonMusic, Chris Knight, and Tim more of TrakMajors. This album is sure to bring back that electricity to lover's rock and will be a sure hit with his youthful audience. Confessions, and The Same Girl are two songs on the album that are all set to position Sean Austin nicely in the industry.

With clear, distinctive vocals, Sean Austin out of Clarendon, Jamaica is known in entertainment as a hard and consistent songwriter/singer who challenges himself daily to deliver his best. The artist has begun getting noticed internationally, with bookings for Europe and Africa on hold until the Covid -19 restrictions ease and he's allowed to travel to these continents to perform.

Driven by an ambition to make it to the pinnacle of the music business, Sean is focused on delivering the best quality reggae music. "I want to deliver purposeful music, in the sense of bringing reggae back to its true nature and form of storytelling (that) evokes human expression and emotion," he said. "I aim to create a body of work which reflects the life of everyday people, especially Jamaicans".

The artiste has been likened to international stars such as Romain Virgo, Beres Hammond, and Christopher Martin and has been touted as one of the most likely to break out in 2021. Sean Austin is the owner of T.R.U.E recording studio and publishing company. His songs are published and distributed under the 'T.R.U.E Music' label and his arsenal of songs can be found on <http://seanaustinmusic.com> and other well-known music social spaces such as Youtube, Spotify, etc under his moniker #iamseanaustin @iamseanaustin.

The artiste can be contacted for booking through Christian Linton at The Red Umbrella Entertainment Inc 1 (512) 897 3551 or redumbrellacc@gmail.com
