

Stephanie Haavik Releases New Single 'Prodigal'

Release Date: April 22, 2022

Decatur, Alabama Mar 25, 2022 (issuewire.com) - This is a big year for singer/songwriter, Stephanie Haavik. She hasn't slowed down since the release of her first single 'Holy Spirit Fire' in July of 2021 and is now preparing to release her first EP, 'Posture'. The EP will consist of six songs with four out of the six first being released as singles.

'Prodigal' is the first single to be released on April 22, 2022. With its high-energy sound and engaging lyrics, this song's anthem is one of hope and forgiveness. Click here for early access to 'Prodigal'.

In addition to spending the past year writing, recording, and preparing for her upcoming releases, Stephanie has also had the privilege of performing 'Jireh' with Maverick City Music as part of their choir at the 2021 Dove Awards. Most recently she, along with many gifted singers, had the opportunity to be a part of the music video for Matthew West's latest release, 'Me on Your Mind'.

Nashville Voyager Magazine recently published an interview with Stephanie Haavik. If you would like to read more about her story, the how and the why behind her music, click here.

Stephanie Haavik lives in Decatur, AL. with her husband, their three children, one skittish cat, and a Dalmatian named Duke. She leads worship at her home church, Bcoming Church, and travels for events as often as she's able.

It is her greatest wish that each song released touches as many ears and hearts as possible, bringing sounds of hope, joy, forgiveness, and love. Even greater than this is her desire for each song released and not released to touch the heart of Jesus.
