The Care Crate Company Becomes Official Finalist in FedEx Small Business Grant Contest

Cleveland, Ohio Mar 22, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - The Care Crate Company has become an official finalist for the 2022 FedEx Small Business Grant. There were a total of 18,000 entries with the top 100 finalists being selected last week. The Care Crate Co. is one of few Cleveland-based finalists.

The $50,000 grant is offered annually only to small businesses as assisted funding for their ventures. The 3 grand prize winners will each earn $50,000. All 7 first-place winners will earn $20,000. Grand prize winners are chosen based on votes from the public. The voting period began on March 22nd and will close on March 31st at 11:00 pm.

Supporters can vote by going to <https://smallbusinessgrant.fedex.com/entries-gallery>. Click on The Care Crate Company, or search the company name in the search bar, and click view entry. Voters must enter a valid email address and complete a CAPTCHA question for the vote to be cast. Votes are limited to once per person every 24 hours. Company employees may vote for their business. Businesses cannot offer discounts, giveaways, or prizes in exchange for voting.

The Care Crate Company is based out of Cleveland owned and created by Greg Airel in 2018. Airel himself is a native of Cleveland. Airel graduated from Baldwin Wallace University in 2010.
