California City, California May 2, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Alveda, an Ayurveda company, launched its telemedicine platform, bringing the traditional Ayurvedic practices to the doorsteps of its users with an integrated approach and modern technology. Alveda was pre-launched in January 2022 for the test run. In April 2022, the platform is now accessible to patients worldwide.

Patients must subscribe to telemedicine services for quick assistance and health resolution. Alveda is also offering free consultation for a limited period using its promo codes. If you are new to Alveda holistic telemedicine platform, use ALVEDANOW to avail your free consultation.

Through the platform, patients can book an online consultation with an experienced Ayurvedic Doctor and receive holistic medicine consultation.

To this date, when everyone is dealing with health complications due to a sedentary lifestyle and bad food choices, Ayurveda is the resort to rejuvenate the entire body system with a holistic approach and grounded life choices. In this traditional medicine system, doctors use well-preserved concepts of Siddha, Ayurveda, and Unani from the scriptures of ancient India.

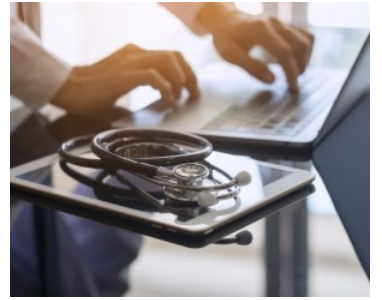

So, with Alveda, you don't need to travel to India to explore the holistic medicine system. You can access the best Ayurvedic Doctors from your home comforts and get treated without any after-effects.

From skin issues, anxiety, stress, hypertension, hair issues, obesity, and diabetes to gastrointestinal problems, doctors at Alveda are specialized in all the areas. The list also includes;

- Endocrine issues
- Joint Pain
- Respiratory problems
- Female health issues
- Child health and pediatrics
- Eye, ENT & Oral
- Oncology
- Urinary tract infection
- Liver & Gall
- Autoimmune diseases
- Sexual diseases
- Neurological problems
- Heart issues
- Ophthalmology
- Male health issues
- Dental problems
- Lymphatic system issues

The doctors here not only treat your underlying health conditions but also guide you to have improved health and dietary choices. They guide patients to follow the holistic approach to health, mindfulness, and wellness because, in Ayurveda, everything is interconnected and interdependent. You cannot leave any of its aspects to achieve improvement in another. Alveda's doctors provide personalized treatment to transform the individual's life and instill it with life essence and longevity.

Alveda is a highly comprehensive and easy-to-use telemedicine platform that is accessible with a few clicks. The User Interface is quite responsive and instructs users efficiently to choose the relative healthcare services.
