

Content creator Muhammed Akief reveals how the Internet made him an overnight star

Kannur, Kerala Apr 11, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Muhammed Akief is an actor, director, and content creator who is widely known for creating comedic skit videos on the internet.

Comedy is not as easy as it looks. Entertaining and making people laugh is the biggest challenge. Blessed are those who possess this quality of bringing joy and happiness to people's lives.

Muhammed Akief is a content creator who has expertise in making comedy videos. Muhammed Akief is born in Kannur and brought up in Fujairah, the United Arab Emirates, the young influencer is currently staying in Kannur, Kerala. He has got great entrepreneurship skills and during his free time, Muhammed Akief utilized them in making videos along with his brothers. He always aimed to become an actor or director in the Malayalam film industry and to fulfill his dream he tried making a short film. However, he failed in his execution as he had no experience in directing films.

He later studied various concepts of filmmaking like directing, shooting, and editing, Muhammed Akief later decided to execute the plan and he started making short comedic skits along with his friend Sugin and his brothers. His first video was 'What happens when foreigners try to be like Arab'. Muhammed Akief was unconfident and felt hesitant to share his video on the internet but after his brothers insisted he posts the video, it went berserk and went viral on the internet. Many pages on Facebook shared the video and that's when he decided to be a content creator. While speaking about receiving such an overwhelming response to the video, Akief said, "I created the video just for fun but never ever in my wildest dream did I imagine that it would go viral on the internet. It was just an unreal experience."

With more than 340k subscribers on YouTube, he has created a lot of viral videos like 'That Mannerless Friend', 'A Mandan From London', 'April Fool's Day', 'Malayali Da', 'Hello Doctor', 'What Happened Bro?' among others. When asked if he would leave content creation for movies, Muhammed said, "Cinema has always been my dream. Every film lover wishes to be a part of a movie once in a lifetime and I am in the same boat. However, my main priority is YouTube and I don't want to rush into movies soon. I want to study how the film industry works first before I get into it." Well, wouldn't it be a treat to see Muhammed Akief make his foray into films and entertain people on the big screen?
