Get to know Dermatologist Dr. Denise T. Dickinson, who serves patients in Louisville, Kentucky.

New York City, New York Apr 20, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A devoted physician, Dr. Dickinson has been providing dermatology services to the people of Louisville, Kentucky for over 25 years. She understands that the skin deserves care like all of the other vital organs and knows how important healthy and vibrant skin is to the body as well as spirit.

The doctor offers services tailored to children, adults, and seniors, treating a wide variety of common skin issues, including all types of skin diseases and skin cancers. She also provides services for hair loss, common fungal infections, and rashes.

Pertaining to her educational pursuits, she earned her medical degree from the University of Louisville School of Medicine, and continued on to complete her residency in dermatology at the same educational venue.

Following her training, the doctor attained board certification in dermatology through the American Board of Dermatology, which is a voluntary, non-profit, private, autonomous organization formed for the primary purpose of protecting the public interest by establishing and maintaining high standards of training, education, and qualifications of physicians rendering care in dermatology.

Dermatology is the branch of medicine dealing with the skin. The skin is the largest organ of the body. Dermatology is a specialty with both medical and surgical aspects. A dermatologist is a specialist doctor who manages skin diseases and deals with both internal and external causes and some cosmetic concerns involving the skin. Dermatological duties include taking consultations, providing screening tests, and undertaking non-invasive surgical procedures.
