San Francisco, California Apr 26, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Deep Green Genetics alongside Earthdance Global is proud to announce our continued collaboration with United Kingdom Dub Legend Mad Professor, who kicked off his United States Tour this week.

It is the Professor's first USA tour in six years and kicked off his first show in Buffalo, New York. He has several stops on the East Coast and then will continue his tour on the West Coast later in the month. Tour dates can be found at <https://www.sonicbids.com/band/mad-professor/>

"It's great to be back on tour in the U.S. The fans have been awesome and it's great to be performing live," said Mad Professor.

Here is a link to an Interview with Mad Professor just recently in Philadelphia.

Mad Professor is a self-taught electronic technician. His title was first given by friends at school, who were amazed by the experiments he carried out as a youth and his passion for all things electrical. His Ariwa record label is one of the longest-running reggae labels.

Having secured recordings from U Roy, Lee Scratch Perry, and Luciano, Mad Prof has just completed a masterpiece, it is clear the Professor has escaped the Front Room Asylum!

To celebrate four decades as a label and 40 years of Dub, a 5 part series was launched last year, as well as posthumous releases from the 3 Godfathers of the label, Yabby You, U Roy, and Lee Scratch Perry.
