This week's featured artist is Chill Qin. Chill Qin is an emerging producer from Taipei Taiwan, labeling himself as a 'cross-field' producer. The music no doubt crosses some boundaries.

On their debut EP for Muti Music, Chill Qin took us on a fantastic journey through cultural influences, world, and heritage instrumentation, along with some awesome electronic music production. The result was unique in its sound and presentation. Its extensively complex and diverse instrumentation is epically refreshing. The melodies draw on his heritage and cultural influences and combined with the beats that draw and contemporary styles like Dubstep and then experimenting with them, make this EP incredibly fun to listen to.

More recently Chill Qin has collaborated with fine art and visual artists in creating custom animated visual productions with their incredible sound design elements added to bring the visual pieces to life. The recent collaboration with Wen-Ching Hao was featured at the Taipei Fine Art Museum.
