

Family Advocates Make Impact In Trenton Proclamation Signed

Buliding A Wall Of Hope And Love At The Statehouse

Trenton, New Jersey Apr 15, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Inaugural event proclaimed by the Mayor of Trenton. Members and affiliates of FAN PAC (Family Advocate Network Political Action Committee) will observe the 17th Annual International Parental Alienation Awareness Day by hosting an event to build a Wall of Hope and Love at the State House Annex, 131 W. State St. Trenton N.J. 08608 on Monday, April 25th, 2022, from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. EDT.

Heart-shaped plaques with personal messages will be placed on the wall dedicated to children and family members to commemorate the loss of a Child-Parent relationship bond due to separation or divorce.

"We believe every child, regardless of his/her age, has a right to love and to be loved by both parents, regardless of the family structure" expressed David Kalen, Executive Director - Legislative Affairs, FAN PAC NJ.

This is a free, public awareness event intended to inspire those impacted by the loss of a bond with their children and will afford those impacted a place to heal. The event will include advocates, legislators and educational material to inspire the community. Participants who wish to sign up in advance or submit a virtual personalized message, please visit <https://www.fanpacnj.org/events>
