

FlexClip Video Editor Mother's Day Sale - Extra 40% OFF on All Plans

FlexClip is holding its unmissable Mother's Day sale, offering 40% off all subscription plans!

Barberton, Ohio May 5, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - FlexClip, a user-friendly online video editor developed by PearlMountain, has launched a big Mother's Day sale, giving customers the best deal of the year on all plans. The basic $5.99 plan will drop to $3.59 per month. With the most popular plus plan, customers can now get a 1-year subscription for $71.92, originally priced at $119.88.

There can be no better time to purchase a package than Mother's Day since FlexClip offers the best discounts on its pricing. This special sale will be a 1-week promotion from May 5 to May 11, 2022. Every new customer can use coupon LOVEMOM at checkout to claim 40% off any plan on the page: <https://www.flexclip.com/pricing.html>.

Social media marketers, businessmen, marketing professionals, educators, and even individuals can now save an extra 40% from getting the FlexClip with the following key features:

- Clean and User-friendly Interface

It is a semi-professional video editor with advanced features but an intuitive UI. All of the main editing options are displayed on the left side, from which you select the features you want. For a beginner, there is virtually no learning curve. For those who are skilled at editing, FlexClip's interface will help them be more efficient in this regard.

- Powerful and Efficient Editing Features

Although the interface is somewhat simple, FlexClip still ensures all the basic features of a video editing software, including trim, rotate, merge, resize, etc. In case you want to watermark as copyright, you can also use the advanced feature to protect the content you have created. Speed change allows you to slow down a video to draw viewers' attention to the details of the sports, highlighting the amazing moments.

- Abundant Materials and Editing Elements

FlexClip provides the user with a huge gallery of predesigned video templates that is constantly updated. It also has integrated a library of images and high-resolution videos with a variety of topics from travel, business, family, animals, and nature. It comes with filters, stickers, overlays, and transitions. Furthermore, various text styles and audio resources are available, which are impressive elements to visually and audibly interact with the audience.

- Easily Share Videos with Everyone

You can export video to many standard formats like mp4, gif, and different video resolutions with just one click. Also, increase your video experience by simultaneously distributing it across multiple channels from the FlexClip editor. This eliminates the steps of exporting and uploading videos to YouTube, Dropbox, or Google Drive. In addition to that, you can copy the embed link and then easily paste it on your website or blog.

Pricing and Availability

FlexClip's annual plan was originally priced at $71.88 (Basic), $119.88 (Plus), and $239.88 (Business) per year. By grabbing this Mother's Day deal, customers can get a 1-year subscription to this package at only $43.12, $71.92, or $143.92 by visiting <https://www.flexclip.com/pricing.html>, saving up to $95.96!
