New York City, New York Apr 29, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Recognized as a caring and compassionate pediatric surgeon, Dr. Margaron works with patients at the Naval Medical Center Portsmouth.

As a premier healthcare organization in the Department of Defense, the focus of Naval Medical Center Portsmouth is to provide patients with world-class medical care in a healing environment that promotes better outcomes for them. Their Pediatric Surgery Division provides comprehensive evaluation, preoperative preparation, operative treatment, and postoperative care for the full spectrum of routine electives as well as urgent or emergent pediatric surgical problems.

Back in the early days of his academic career, Dr. Margaron earned his medical degree from the Geisel School of Medicine at Dartmouth in 2014. He then went on to complete his internship and residency in pediatric surgery at the Naval Medical Center Portsmouth.

Pediatric surgery is a subspecialty of surgery involving the surgery of fetuses, infants, children, adolescents, and young adults. Pediatric surgeons are trained as general surgeons who then go on to get specialty training to perform surgery on children and neonates with various congenital and oncologic issues.
