New York City, New York Apr 11, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - The weekend is all about grooving with new rhythmic blends. And who can make it better than hip-hop artist Smoov Bully. This young creative star is back with the 2nd volume of the playlist 'Top Of Da West 2'. There are six appealing hip-hop tracks in this playlist that have showcased his best works so far. His previous release 'Top Of Da West (Volume 1)' also received an amazing response from the listeners. Hailing out of Raleigh, North Carolina, this rockstar has always admired and followed the various craft of hip-hop music. Though he has witnessed a lot of tragedy in life, his strength has helped him streamline all these negative aspects that he had been through. His admirer, therefore, salutes the courage and dedication that he has for achieving his goals.

This New York Hip-hop Artist has been widely known for his musical blends. 'In My Feeling' is a greatly composed song fueled with gripping wordplays. The next track of this album 'Cant take It' offers a well-graphed hip-hop aura. Followed by the next number 'Listen Close' also offers some catchy wordplay to his audience. And 'YOU AINT EVA' offers some grooving vibes, along with his daunting vocal qualities. 'LATE NIGHT' opens the song with charmingly consuming beats followed by some sharp rapping verses. And the last track of this album 'REALLY REAL' delivers some painful aura with some heartfelt narration delivered with his infectious vocal modulations.

The hip-hop genre has gained some engaging tracks through his cultivated music formations. And the 'Top Of Da West (Volume 2)' has some gripping idealism in his very relatable songs.
