All you need to do is call them up and book your laundry.

Washing & ironing clothes, cleaning carpets & curtains, dry cleaning, and shoe cleaning have always been a hassle for many working individuals. The process of washing clothes does not include just washing them.

First, need to check the fabric of the color; does it need washing or need dry cleaning?; Will the color bleed from the new garment? So many queries to solve before actually washing all the garments.

Additionally, dry cleaning by professionals has many benefits, such as getting stains removed like spots that didn't exist in the first place; maintaining your precious fabric that is cleaned by professionals, and many more! Further, cleaning and maintaining hygiene are essential. So how to manage the laundry?

"We all are here trying to automate all the activities around us. Why not laundry? Working individuals can rest in their leisure time rather than spending half a day doing laundry! As a result, we have come with all laundry service in three major districts of Kerala as well," the spokesperson from The Laundry Press stated.

They offer all kinds of laundry services from washing clothes to ironing them, from dry cleaning to bed & linen cleaning, from carpet cleaning to shoe cleaning. So the question is why should you choose The Laundry Press amongst others? They have a team of professionals for all the services they provide.

"Our team of experts removes dirt as well as stains from your clothes, such that you forget where the spots were. We take all your laundry troubles and give you the utmost convenient services," he added.

In addition to laundry services, they offer the service almost everyone requires, alteration service. They can alter your clothes with accurate measurements, replace zip with buttons, and much more.

You can enjoy your free time by availing of professional laundry services from The Laundry Press which offers the best dry-cleaning in Dubai. Moreover, you get your laundry done by experts and save costs. How?

For delicate clothes or new garments, you may spend on the detergent that you need once in a while. For removing stains, you spend on another strong detergent that may also be required once in half a year. Why spend so much on detergent, when you can get your clothes cleaned with necessary solvents by experts? You can save your time and costs in this case. Therefore, book your next laundry with The Laundry Press.
