Now Broadcast on KMCI "The Spot" Every Saturday at 1:p.m. in Metro Kansas City (Channel 38) and Nationally on the Entire LATV-KJLA Network Platform in Los Angeles and Beyond

"The Soccer Academy" returns to broadcast television on "The Spot" Channel 38 in the metro Kansas City area every Saturday at 1:00 p.m. (for the next several Saturday afternoons). "The Soccer Academy" is an uplifting and inspirational soccer "travelogue" program that shares culture, ethnicity, and sports with its viewers. The television program also incorporates messages of healthy living and self-esteem, advocating that young athletes believe in themselves and work hard to attain their goals. "The Soccer Academy" is educational and instructional on many levels, as well.

This Saturday's broadcast at 1:00 p.m. in the Kansas City area will focus on the sights, sounds, and tastes of Mexico City. The culture of everyday life in Mexico City is on full display for soccer players, families, coaches, and all people who love culture and travel. This Saturday's episode on KMCI incorporates scenes from the main cathedral in Mexico City and the exotic fresh food market known as "El Mercado de San Juan." Additionally, the internationally renowned pro soccer team—PUMAS de la UNAM—takes center stage in this episode.

Host and producer, Antonio Soave, says: "The Soccer Academy" is an ideal way to share peace through the sport of soccer. It is a great way for younger players to improve their soccer skills while experiencing the wonder and beauty of foreign culture, ethnicity and good food."

"The Soccer Academy" continues to be aired on the entire LATV-KJLA network platform nationwide. The show is also co-produced by the Global Foundation for Peace through Soccer, a global non-profit that spreads a message of peace through soccer worldwide. The Global Foundation is presently pursuing peace initiatives in the country of Morocco and throughout Europe for refugees of the war in Ukraine (see www.MoroccoSoccerPeace.com and www.GlobalSoccerPeace.org).
