

Yung Script's Latest Banger "How I Live" Is Refining The Modern Hip-Hop Flavors

Los Angeles, California Apr 1, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Emerging rapper from Kentucky, Yung Script is setting an example in the music industry with his latest release 'How I Live'. The single consists of a head-bopping soundscape through which the rapper has meandered with his smooth lyrical flow. Offering a catchy hook along with witty lyricism, this hip-hop single is currently winning the hearts of millions. Produced by KingBeatsBoy, the track is musically enriched enough to put an impact on hip-hop lovers. Super producer Angela D Richardson has also played a major role in crafting this exciting single through songwriting and producing as well. Currently streaming on all the major platforms, this track is ready to set a record in the top charts.

This talented rapper belongs to a small town named Grayson County in Kentucky and spreads his creative aura across the world. Embracing his origin and real-life stories through his music, each of his singles offers a fair share of his creative persona and psyche. Jacinth Baker, better known as Yung Script has faced racism, fights, and discrimination in his life and tried to be vocal against the incidents through his musical approach. He has previously released many tracks like, 'Winter21', 'Voices', etc that helped to his musical journey. He has also dropped a couple of albums namely, 'Pleasure 4 Pain' and 'No Hand Outs' that created enough buzz in the hip-hop industry.

Yung Script is currently working on his latest album 'Hope Dealer' which is going to be a treat for the Caucasian and urban audience. Taking inspiration from the new age of hip-hop artists, this rapper is all set to create an empire. The latest release 'How I Live' is the greatest example of his consistency and determination, offering a potential dose of optimism. Follow this powerhouse rapper on Spotify and Apple music to explore his musical arsenal.

Media Contact

Yung Script

Renotop100@gmail.com

Source : Yung Script

See on IssueWire