

AYUR CLINIC Offers a Wide Range of Ayurvedic Treatments and Therapies in Melbourne.

AYUR CLINIC is the most trusted Ayurvedic Treatment and Naturopathy Clinic in Melbourne, Australia.

Melbourne, Victoria May 31, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Established in 1993 in Kerala, AYUR CLINIC earned a great reputation for providing Ayurvedic treatment and natural therapies. After operating successfully for over a decade, the director – Sajimon George – decided to relocate to Australia and opened the first Ayurvedic clinic in Melbourne in 2005. Today, AYUR CLINIC is known as the most popular and reliable Ayurvedic clinic in Melbourne and all across Australia. It has even been awarded “Clinic of the Year – Highly Commended” by the Australian Traditional Medicine Society (ATMS) at the 2017 ATMS awards.

While offering insight into AYUR CLINIC, the spokesperson during an interview stated that- “With many benefits, Ayurveda is an ancient system of medicine. A lot of factors differentiate it from modern medicine, as Ayurveda not only treats the symptoms but heals the root cause of an illness. And it is a combination of herbs, yoga, meditation, diet, and regenerative and cleansing treatments. Those who rely on Ayurvedic medicine and treatments to the way of achieving health, inner peace, calmness, physical stamina and mental clarity”. We at AYUR CLINIC, with three clinics open in Victoria (CBD, Sunshine, and Taylors Lakes), have been spreading Ayurveda awareness and offering its profound health benefits to people all over Australia.

As a trusted provider of Ayurveda treatment in Melbourne, AYUR CLINIC has treated nearly 10,000 people from all over Australia and even overseas. The team of skilled and highly qualified Practitioners and Ayurvedic Doctors provide authentic and traditional Indian Natural Therapies. This includes Ayurvedic treatments or management and classical Homoeopathy in all its purity. Treatments are based on Keraleeya Panchakarma and are available for almost all known diseases, with a focus on women’s health, digestive disorders, mental health, and skin conditions. Specialized treatments are also given for musculoskeletal diseases, such as lower back pain, tennis elbow, arthritis, plantar fasciitis, bursitis, and carpal tunnel syndrome.

Talking about Ayurveda therapies provided, the spokesperson added, “We offer a wide range of Ayurvedic therapies, that works to maintain the immune system. People with or without obvious signs of disease can take these therapies to balance their physical ability. Panchakarma is a popular Ayurvedic therapy, which helps to remove toxins from the body. It is an integration of five therapies that helps to eliminate the toxins, and thus it may sustain the body condition for years.”
