

Case Against Turco Hilsaca Falling Flat

Colombia Legal case involving Alfonso 'Turco' Hilsaca takes dramatic turn with defendants first appearance in the case

Cartagena, Bolivar May 11, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - The case against Alfonso Hilsaca Eljadue seems to have fallen flat. On the first day any issues of the case were spoken by Alfonso Hilsaca himself.

It turns out Sr. Hilsaca Eljadue was out of the country on the dates specified by the prosecutor. Documentation corroborates this fact.

With wild, baseless accusations being levied, there is finally concrete evidence associated with the case.

Sr. Alfonso Hilsaca Eljadue confirmed his innocence.

It is a known fact that frequently, high rollers utilize the corrupt nature of some individuals to make false accusations, or false testimony, even fake evidence. It is not difficult to make accusations.

However, passport stamps, imagery from airports, government agencies, and first hand confirmation via witnesses cannot be faked.
