Dan Hollings, the creator of The Plan, is launching a new live training webinar to promote The Wiggle Factor.

The webinar is marketed to those who are new to crypto – but want to make a lot of money quickly by trading cryptocurrencies. During the webinar, Dan will explain how to use a “crypto bot” formula to automatically earn huge crypto trading profits.

During the event, Dan will explain his crypto trading strategies to an audience in real-time. He’ll explain how he makes money by trading cryptocurrencies – and how ordinary traders (or complete newbies) like you can get started.

Specifically, Dan will discuss “The Plan,” which is an automated income-generating strategy he created. The Plan involves using “The Wiggle Factor” to perfectly time the market’s rapid movements, generating quick and easy crypto profits without requiring any work. In fact, Dan claims his system works automatically to generate substantial trading revenue. He also claims it’s a “conservative” approach, generating passive income with limited risk.

To learn more about The Plan and how Dan Hollings’ Wiggle Factor works, you can attend the new live training webinar.

Dan is giving away a total of $2,500 to random winners during the webinar. You must be at the event live to win.

What is The Wiggle Factor?

The Wiggle Factor is a digital guide that gives you the key to immediate passive income. You can discover how to use a specific type of automation to start earning passive income within minutes – regardless of whether the market is crashing or crashing.

Obviously, you should be skeptical of any time promises to provide easy money through crypto trading online. Crypto trading is risky and speculative.

However, Dan claims to have simplified crypto trading and made it easy to earn consistent profits online. Instead of keeping that automated system to himself and becoming even wealthier, Dan has decided to share his moneymaking system with the public via The Wiggle Factor.
