New York City, New York May 26, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - The mission of Grace Specialty Hospital is to serve as a center for excellence in the provision of specialized health care services and comfort for patients and families coping with catastrophic illness and injury.

A native of India, Dr. Raheja graduated with his medical degree from the Armed Forces Medical College in 1980. He then served in the Army medical core as an army doctor for five years. Upon relocating to the United States, he completed his residency in neurology at the New York Medical College in 1993, followed by advanced training in epilepsy at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Wake Forest University, NC.

An expert in his field, the doctor is board-certified in neurology by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (ABPN). The ABPN is a not-for-profit corporation dedicated to serving the professions of psychiatry and neurology.

Neurology is a branch of medicine dealing with disorders of the nervous system. It deals with the diagnosis and treatment of all categories of conditions and diseases involving the central and peripheral nervous systems, including their coverings, blood vessels, and all effector tissue, such as muscle. Neurologists are specialists who treat diseases of the brain and spinal cord, peripheral nerves, and muscles. Neurological conditions include epilepsy, stroke, multiple sclerosis (MS), and Parkinson's disease.

Among his most notable achievements, Dr. Raheja has been the recipient of America's Top Physician Award by the Consumers Research Council for many years in succession.
