Delhi, India May 14, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A book 'LIFE' written by senior writer and socialist Dr. Krishna Saxena was launched at the hands of Union Minister of State for Finance, Hon'ble Shri Pankaj Choudhary. Mrs. Pooja, Mrs. Mangala, and Mrs. Renu Adawal were present at the event.

In this small book, Dr. Krishna Saksena has described the ups and downs of life through various aspects in a simple language. The book also evokes a sense of love, kindness, gratitude, and spirituality, with many fascinating anecdotes to demonstrate their impact on quality of life. In this book, the author has not tried to impose his opinion, but has provided an opportunity for the readers to find the conclusion. The author says that a picture is worth a thousand words, similarly, a true incident in life is worth a thousand quotes.

Mrs. Krishna Saksena in her speech emphasised that the emphasis should be given to creating a value system in society as against creating lust for money.

The Hon'ble minister emphasized that the present Modi government is putting all its best efforts toward women.

A vote of thanks was given by publisher Shri Prabhat Kumar.
