

Environmentally Friendly Tableware from Natural Panaa

Natural Panaa is the most trusted name in the world of environmentally friendly tableware. It started as an idea to solve the issue of plastic pollution.

Broken Hill, New South Wales May 10, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Natural Panaa is the most trusted name in the world of environmentally friendly tableware. It started as an idea to solve the issue of plastic pollution.

We are a social enterprise that aggregates and sells palm leaf products. The aim is to replace plastic disposables across Australia.

It does so in a way that's eco-friendly and sustainable for the community. We source, aggregate, and market the products from home-based and small-scale industries in India.

The makers from India and consumers from Australia get fair pricing from us.

Currently, our team caters to the Australian region. Although we presently sell palm leaf plates and cutlery, we plan to expand to other products soon.

Among the many options available online, the most popular is the set of party plates. These 25 cm party plates are available in a set of 25 plates. Pay 11.50 dollars to order it. For a set of 100 plates, you need to pay 46 dollars. These durable and strong plates can hold all types of food items – without any worry of spillage.

We also offer dinner packs that have all the necessary cutlery for 25 people. This set of 175 items contains dinner plates, small plates, cutlery, water cups, and serviettes. The water cups in the pack are PLA coated. Choose this set for all your occasions and events.

At Natural Panaa, we also offer Bento compartment plates. These plates come with four compartments and are 31-centimeter. It is ideal for meals, snacks, and appetizers. The 25-plate set is available for 12.50 dollars. And a 100-dollar set is available for 50 dollars.
