

eTACSEN receives award as Asia's Most Innovative Leadership Development Consultant in 2022

Hong Kong, Hong Kong S.A.R. May 2, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Leaders can lead a group of people but sometimes even they require consultants to gain success through their leadership capabilities. Being the leading consultant company in the market, eTACSEN is empowering global leaders including industrialists, business owners, CEOs, and authorities to improve their efficiency and overall leadership qualities that help in the growth of an organization. This agency takes pride in winning the award for Asia's Most Innovative Leadership Development Consultants by the Mediazone. On April 26, 2022, the agency received the award for its precious contributions to the growth of global businesses and organizations. With over 20 years of experience in the field, founder Mr. Terence Yeung took this opportunity to celebrate and said, "This award is particularly meaningful to us in 2022 as this year signifies our 20th Anniversary".

Based in Hong Kong, eTACSEN has paved the way for success for many bigger and reputable organizations such as PWC, Baidu, EY, China Mobile International, etc to name some. Offering innovative e-learning and practical training programs, the agency assures greater ROI or return on investment by the end of the year. The interested leaders can find a variety of courses to start with such as Leaderboard Leadership, Five elements of building an efficient team, Scientific Staff Survey, and many others.

"In this turbulent and challenging time, the world needs more and better leaders than at any time in history."

With this revolutionary vision of the Certified Master of The Leadership Challenge Mr. Yeung, eTACSEN is looking forward to winning more awards in the coming days while developing leaders to produce tangible business results with and higher ROI. eTACSEN Management Consultants Limited offers cross-country online and offline training experiences for global leaders.
