

Inchpaper Launches The Book Of India's Youngest Author

A 6-year-old girl from Gurgaon wrote her first book, "Always Be Unique". Inchpaper, Gurgaon based eCommerce start-up, forays into the publishing business and invites the work of young minds to get published and bring it to the world.

Gurgaon, Haryana May 18, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Inchpaper today launched the book 'Always Be Unique' written by a 6-year-old girl Aadya Dube, the youngest author in India.

To support this, we had Shri Naveen Goyal, State Head of Environment Protection Council in Bhartiya

Janta Party and the Founder of Canwinn Foundation, and Shri Sunil Bajaj, Deputy Director of SCERT, Haryana present with us.

About The Book:

Always Be Unique, the book talks about our uniqueness is what makes us special and that is beautiful. Ava, a kind schoolgirl, gets intimidated by her classmates at school. She wishes to be like them. But as the story continues something happens that helps her realize her self-worth. Always be unique is a story of discovering inner strength that makes us distinct.

About The Author:

Aadya Dube is a 6 years old girl who studies at Salwan Public School, Gurugram. Hailing from the city of food, Indore, she enjoys painting and traveling. Aadya loves coding and is an ardent reader. She is a kind-hearted girl for whom her family is her lifeline.

About The Publisher:

Inchpaper is a stationery eCommerce start-up founded in July 2020 by young entrepreneur and stationery lover Pulak Agarwal, Founder & CEO. Inchpaper houses everything from basic stationery to the top of line products and offers a complete range /of solutions starting from pencils, and erasers to school teaching & learning aids for school & college going students and parents, along with catering to the needs of working professionals and offices/corporates, at large. Inchpaper aims to deliver a range of stationery products at the doorstep across India including Tier II & III towns. Inchpaper aims to add new products and services on a regular basis.

Pulak Agarwal - Founder & CEO at Inchpaper talked about how Inchpaper became a part of Aadya's wonderful journey. Many months ago he was approached by Aadya's parents introducing him to their daughter's first book 'Always Be Unique'. He knew immediately after hearing about Aadya and the book she had written that Inchpaper had to become a part of this incredible story. Inchpaper began working on the illustration, and design of the book along with marketing and publishing it in-house. Inchpaper is proud to be associated with a young mind like Aadya and it would love to continue working with young talent in exploring their creativity.

The book is 22 pages long and is available in print version on the Inchpaper website and mobile app.

Inchpaper

Online Stationery Store

Media Contact

Inchpaper Private Limited

info@inchpaper.com

7703860982

37/4, 2nd Floor, Inderpuri, Jacobpura

Source : Inchpaper Private Limited

See on IssueWire