Jersey City, New Jersey May 10, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Microexcel has always stood by and supported SAP's CSR activities as an SAP partner and a responsible business enterprise. In recognition of Microexcel's continued partnership and contribution, SAP had extended an invite to the golf event to support the non-profit, Overflowing Hands.

Overflowing Hands gathers resources to help vulnerable children across the world. The golf event seeks to raise awareness and funds to help them in their mission to serve, empower, and transform the lives of vulnerable children everywhere.

From feeding hungry children to empowering and providing shelter and academic and need-based scholarships, Overflowing Hands is involved in stellar work that Microexcel is happy to support.

Microexcel Quote: Microexcel's CEO Paul Simon, said, "Through our support of social initiatives that contribute to creating a better future for children everywhere, we express our continued patronage of SAP and their social initiatives. Microexcel is honored to participate in the SAP Customer Appreciation Day Golf event on April 26."

Microexcel's team of Paul Simon and Greg Koutsis represented Microexcel at the events in Raleigh over the two days. The company looks forward to more opportunities to collaborate with SAP in its mission to serve communities in a meaningful way.
