Get to know Plastic Surgeon Dr. Miguel Gallegos, who serves patients in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

New York City, New York May 18, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A prominent board-certified plastic surgeon, Dr. Gallegos provides cosmetic enhancement services for the face, body, and breast at Hermosa Plastic Surgery in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

He is committed to helping individuals enhance their natural beauty through the latest surgical and nonsurgical cosmetic techniques in his AAAASF-accredited surgical facility and MedSpa. Since 1999, Dr. Gallegos has helped many patients feel more confident about their appearance through his surgical and nonsurgical treatments of the face, breast, body, skin, and hair. His attention to detail and artistic style has helped him to create amazing surgical transformations that not only look beautiful but also feel natural.

Utilizing his artistic eye to create ideal solutions for our patients, his current hospital affiliations include Kaseman Presbyterian Hospital, Lovelace Health System, Roswell Regional, Heart Hospital of New Mexico, and Albuquerque Surgery Center.

As a young man, Dr. Gallegos completed his undergraduate training in pharmacy at the University of New Mexico. He also worked in his dad's pharmacy in Las Vegas, New Mexico where he voiced concerns over the number of people with unique facial deformities who went untreated due to a lack of insurance or knowledge about how to access financial resources. He later attended medical school at the University of New Mexico School of Medicine where he was mentored and guided into the surgical field by Dr. Donald E. Fry. Dr. Gallegos completed his general surgery training at the University of Texas Medical School in Houston along with a fellowship in advanced microsurgery at Houston's St. Joseph Hospital. He also received rigorous training during his plastic surgery residency at Northwestern

Memorial Hospital, as well as in pediatric plastic surgery at Chicago's Children's Memorial Hospital and Chicago's Shriners Hospital.

Providing high-quality surgical and nonsurgical treatments to men and women, Dr. Gallegos is dedicated to helping individuals obtain the bodies they desire. He returned to New Mexico after his plastic surgery residency in Texas to start his career as a cosmetic plastic surgeon by opening Hermosa Plastic Surgery in 1999. He also took on extra emergency room calls at St. Joseph and Presbyterian Hospitals where he performed hand surgery, nerve and vascular reconstruction, and other microsurgical procedures.

Today, he has a thriving practice with surgical, nonsurgical, and MedSpa treatments available to his patients with a staff of highly experienced medical professionals. Breast augmentation, tummy tuck, liposuction, fat transfer (to the buttocks), and facelift are some of the most popular procedures requested of his talents. He also performs cosmetic injectables, laser treatments, and hair restoration procedures in his facility.

Committed to excellence, Dr. Gallegos is a member of numerous organizations, including the American Society of Plastic Surgeons, the American Society for Aesthetic Plastic Surgery, the American College of Surgeons, the New Mexico Medical Society, the Rho Chi Pharmacy Honor Society, the Greater Albuquerque Medical Association, BOTOX® Cosmetic Physicians' Network, and La Tierra Society.

With a strive to provide desired results, the doctor is licensed or certified through the following organizations: Advanced Microsurgery – Certified by AMA; Instructor of Microsurgery – Certified by AMA; Advanced Cardiopulmonary Life Support; Advanced Trauma Life Support; Agee Carpal Tunnel Release System Training Program; UltraPulse® CO2 Laser Skin Resurfacing Training Program; LySonix® Ultrasound-Assisted Liposuction Training Program; and Trivex® Varicose Vein Treatment Training Program.

Plastic surgery is a surgical specialty involving the restoration, reconstruction, or alteration of the human body. It can be divided into two main categories - reconstructive surgery and cosmetic surgery. A plastic surgeon's primary responsibility is to perform surgical and non-surgical procedures, and they use a variety of reparative and reconstructive techniques to get the job done.

Recently, Dr. Gallegos published a research paper in the esteemed journal, Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, on using pedicle flaps for breast reconstruction. He has also published work in the Aesthetic Surgery Journal on research he completed at Northwestern University Medical School for a one-stage treatment approach for tuberous breast deformity. In addition, he volunteers at the University of New Mexico within the Department of Surgery.

Among his various accolades include the Patients' Choice Award (2020), On-Time Doctor Award (2020), and Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2020).

As an avid outdoorsman, Dr. Gallegos can be found when he has free time enjoying himself out on the golf course playing golf, on the ski slopes skiing, in the woods hunting, or at a nearby fishing spot trying to catch some fish. He also has a fondness for horseback riding and horse racing.
