

Music Band Ho Jo Fro Continues to Inspire Their Fans; Latest Track 'Cati' is a Tribute to the Demised Dog

A musical band, Ho Jo Fro comprises some supremely talented artists. The latest song, 'Cati' is a tribute to the demised dog, who the band can never forget.

Charlottesville, May 19, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Multigenre music band Ho Jo Fro is a supremely talented musician. The band is known for their experiment with their craftsmanship in the music world. Just a few days back, it released another folk and alternative rock combined song, 'Cati'. It is a kind of song that people would love to listen to at any phase of their life. The song is focused on something that has gone but can never be forgotten. The members have paid a tribute to the beloved dog, who is no more. In the song, the band has described the dog as a human. The listeners get to see the use of personification in the song. In the song, the band claims, “we know what makes you smile.”

The use of the instrument is cordial. Blending the rock with melody, the band has given a sweet tribute to the dog they have lost. The more you listen to it, the more you will fall in love with the idea of the song. More than anything the raw and folk style of singing has attracted people to his music. The band’s deep understanding of different genres of music is vivid in the song. So, listen to ‘Cati’ by the very versatile band Ho Jo Fro. The band is present on Spotify. They are very consistent in composing songs. They usually release three songs every year. So, follow the band on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and the podcast channel. Follow them to stay updated with every latest release of the band.

Just go for this track 'Cati' by Ho Jo Fro

: <https://open.spotify.com/track/3knnbaE6VRXy5KK6DuwNTe>

Media Contact

The Tunes Club

info@thetunesclub.com

Source : Ho Jo Fro

See on IssueWire