

Saint Keliz shares fresh Multi-Genres sound with new Extended Play Album “LEVITATION”

Saint Keliz

Lagos, Nigeria Jun 23, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Kehinde Falade popularly called “SAINT KELIZ” born April 16th, 1996 is a graduate of Educational Foundation and Management from Ekiti State University, Ado. He started writing and doing music professionally after graduating from the University in 2014. He has released several singles and 2 EPs albums so far. His Latest EP titled LEVITATION is an excellent mix of volatile emotions written and recorded to introduce a fresh multi-genre sound to the Afrobeat, Dancehall, and Hip-hop/Rap genre of music. The five-track EP which was recently dropped and already gaining massive attention and airwaves boasts of great songs like Hallelujah, Chances, Ganja Riddim, Jeun Soke, and Moolah featuring 1andy. Narrating the story behind this extended play album: It started with “HALLELUJAH” – Telling a story and thanking Almighty God for His talent, career, the success of the project, and His present status in the music business.

The second single on the EP “CHANCES” – goes further to express how deeply he is glad to have the opportunity to make it happen despite the fact that many thought it will be uncertain as an independent artist. Moreover, “GANJA RIDDIM” which was a gyrations song with Jamaican vibes type was inspired by his top influencers in the music industry such as Fela Kuti, Snoop Dogg, Burna boy, Wizkid, Wiz Khalifa, Popcaan, Vybes Kartel, etc. Ganja Riddim was recorded on a good evening when He was in the studio with His often-time collaborator 1andy, while Saint Keliz was handling the beat-making part of the song and 1andy sings and rapped more. The fourth single on the extended play album titled “MOOLAH” which simply means “money” was inspired by the way money is very important in individual life to survive on daily basis. Moolah which was the number 4 track on the extended play album has been released as a single in November 2021.

Finally, the masterpiece “JEUN SOKE” which means soaring higher or simply getting ahead of the game is a song about working hard and praying day and night to get in the spotlight and making His fans proud with great music all the time. This body of work is a great effort from him as he disclosed that he is currently on a nationwide tour promoting the EP, as it is penetrating the music industry already; and he is here to make a bold statement to prove his relevance in the competitive market.

Listen to the Levitation The EP

Saint Keliz Social Media Links

Saint Keliz Instagram

Saint Keliz Facebook

Media Contact

Saint Keliz

saintkeliz@gmail.com

+234 7064730705

Source : Saint Keliz

See on IssueWire