

The free Study and Go Abroad Virtual Fair takes place on May 19, 2022

While COVID-19 has put many plans on hold, and the uncertainty of the pandemic continues to disrupt the lives of people around the world, the quest for education and personal development is stronger than ever.

Toronto, Ontario May 13, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Planning for the future – for one's self, and one's children – remain top-of-mind, and the Study and Go Abroad Virtual Education Fair brings world-class institutions from around the globe into your home. More information can be found at www.studyandgoabroad.com.

With exhibitors offering hundreds of diploma, degree, and experiential programs, visitors to the online fair are able to engage online with representatives from universities, colleges and professional schools, as well as participate in valuable webinars to find the information they need to make informed decisions about their education and personal development goals.

Exhibiting institutions from all over the world, including Australia, the UK, USA, the Caribbean, Switzerland, Germany, Greece and Italy, some of which rank in the Top 100 universities worldwide, will be showcasing undergraduate and postgraduate-level programs in a range of different fields including Medicine, Law, Pharmacy, Hotel Management, Business, Technology, Engineering, Pharmacy and the Arts. Visitors to the fair can learn about admission requirements, destinations, program options and available scholarships.

One of the most important student events of the year, the fair welcomes students seeking post-secondary options, young professionals looking to retrain, parents and educators.

Exhibitor profiles, scholarship information and webinar schedules for the Study and Go Abroad Virtual Fair can be found online at <https://www.studyandgoabroad.com/virtual-education-fair/>. The fair will take place from 3 pm to 9 pm EST and registration is free of charge.
