New Delhi, Delhi Jun 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - In the last few years, India has been attracting many foreign tourists from across the world. Therefore, with the surge of tourists in the country, the Indian Immigration Authority decided to introduce a 5-year visa to India in 2019. Ever since it was introduced, this document has helped many foreign citizens visit the country and fulfill their touristic purposes. Working hand-in-hand with the Indian government, the private agency India-visa-online is offering the 5 Year Indian Visa from the very beginning of its introduction. Be it for sightseeing, recreation purpose, casual visits to meet your friends, or even a short-term Yoga program, this agency can deal with all your visa needs as per your requirement.

Citizens hoping to visit India from other countries must note that to apply for the Indian e-visa, they will need certain documents. The list of the documents includes having a passport that is valid for at least 6 months from the date of the first arrival in India and an email ID. Willing applicants can fill up the form for the Indian visa from the agency's website and pay the fees for it via a credit card, a debit card, UnionPay, or even by PayPal account. Normally, after paying the fees and submitting the application form, the visa is issued within 96 hours. However, it is advisable to apply 7 days in advance of your flight to India. Applicants must also note that the Indian e-visas are not extendable and non-convertible.

Talking about the categories of Indian tourist visas, there are mainly three types. The first is a 30-day validity visa, which lets foreign nationals double entry into the country within the validity period. The second is the 1-year visa, which enables a multi-entry of foreign nationals within a period of 365 days. Coming to the third and the final one, the 5-year visa comes with a validity of 60 months with multiple entries to India. While UK, US, Canada, and Japan citizens can have a maximum stay duration of 180 days at once, citizens from other countries shall not exceed 90 days of continuous stay.
