

Actress Malinda Williams Joins Local Success Coach To Discuss the Importance of Powerful Communication For Black Women

Phoenix, Arizona Jun 24, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Phoenix, Arizona: Felicia Davis, a local empowerment coach, will be joined by Actress Malinda Williams and a team of other leading experts to host an online leadership camp for Black women who want to learn more about how to communicate with influence and demonstrate leadership skills in the workplace.

During the leadership camp, Felicia Davis along with the other experts will be discussing what makes an effective leader and will guide participants through strategies and tips to help amplify their voice, visibility, and influence.

“There's power in living your life as your authentic self. The world doesn't benefit from you playing small and not living in your truth, fulfilling your calling, and standing in your power, to inspire another to do the same!” says Malinda Williams

Felicia Davis says, “What I know from my 20+ years as an HR Executive is when women are equipped with the skills, resources, relationships, and mentorship, they become unstoppable. Whether your goal is to become an indispensable employee, a leader in your workplace or community, or simply brush up on your ability to influence decisions, you won't want to miss out on this experience.”
