Get to know Family Physician Dr. Almond Toledo, who serves patients in Jacksonville, Florida.

New York City, New York Jun 27, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A devoted family physician, Dr. Toledo is in practice at Baptist Primary Care in Jacksonville, Florida. A member of the American Academy of Family Physicians, he is dedicated to forming meaningful relationships with his patients and providing individualized and research-based care. He takes a holistic view of medicine, treating the whole patient. He specializes in online doctor visits, diabetes, asthma, preventive care, geriatric care, sports medicine, chronic conditions, and communicable and heart disease.

With a broad educational background, he graduated with his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2015, and completed his residency in family medicine at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in 2018. Recently, he served a fellowship in sports medicine at the same educational venue, volunteering his services at intercollegiate sporting events while also treating student-athletes in an on-campus, sports medicine clinic.

An authority in his field, the doctor is board-certified in family medicine by the American Osteopathic Board of Family Physicians, which is an organization that provides board certification to qualified osteopathic physicians who specialize in delivering comprehensive primary care for patients of all ages, genders, and addressing all parts of the body.

Among his other roles, Dr. Toledo maintains hospital privileges at Baptist Medical Center South, and Baptist Medical Center Jacksonville.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

A native of Jacksonville, Dr. Toledo enjoys practicing family medicine in the city where his parents and siblings still live. In his spare time, he enjoys the outdoors with his dog Ace, working out in the gym, and rooting for his hometown Jacksonville Jaguars.
