If a line only posts to one bureau, they will attempt to troubleshoot it on a 2nd bureau or add it to another card. People must understand that sometimes, cards get shut down or do not post.

They ask that people be patient going into it and understand that the process could have a delay of a few days or even a couple of weeks.

If people require more time, it's wise to advise the sales associate so that they can provide a quote for a more extended period.

Final Thought

CPN supply is dedicated to providing our clients with tradelines that are posted on time, every time.

They guarantee that the lines will post within seven days of the card statement date as long as they have valid and active credit monitoring credentials on file.

If for any reason the client is not satisfied with a purchase, they offer a 100% money-back guarantee.
