

Global Investment House, ICM.com Partners with London's Chestertons Polo in the Park Event

ICM.com, a multi-regulated online trading provider is preparing once again to partner with London's Polo in The Park Event

London, United Kingdom Jun 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - ICM.com, a multi-regulated online trading provider is preparing once again to partner with London's Polo in The Park Event.

After both the 2020 and 2021 International Polo events were canceled due to COVID restrictions, ICM.com is excited to be sponsoring the International Chestertons Polo in the Park event for its 6th consecutive year.

A firm fixture in London's social calendar, the prestigious event will be taking place in Hurlingham Park in Fulham, bringing world-class polo to the capital. The annual event typically marks the start of the summer season and will be taking place on the 10th, 11th & 12th of June 2022 in Hurlingham Park, England. As well as the games, there will be lots of entertainment for everyone, including kids.

Chestertons Polo in the park is one of a series of renowned British sporting events alongside the likes of Wimbledon, the boat race, ascot, and the London marathon. The event brings together six-city Polo teams from around the world, including Buenos Aires, New York, Zurich, Sydney, London, and Dubai.

ICM.com first became a partner of the event in 2016, you can look out for the ICM.com logo on the teams' shirts, teams' jeans, pitch-side hoardings, event program, and prize-giving backdrop.

Shoaib Abedi founder and CEO of ICM.com commented on the partnership 'The Chestertons Polo in the Park event is iconic in the British calendar, we're proud to be supporting a team that shares the same dedication to teamwork, discipline, and determination to succeed.'
