Bengaluru, Karnataka Jun 25, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Gururo, a Bangalore-based leading ed-tech company, offers Undergraduate and PostGraduate courses in collaboration with Top Indian and International Universities. The platform provides over 100 technical and management courses designed in line with industry standards by leading industry experts for individual and corporate clients. Sandeep Dwivedi and Sudeep Kumar Dwivedi founded the company to provide high-quality professional education at affordable prices to help professionals enhance their career transformation.

The present global job market is facing challenges in hiring talent and their acquisition. In addition, the corporate world witnessed increased demands for professionals with new-age digital skill sets.

Gururo aims to fill this upskilling gap by creating a reliable platform with currently trending career skills that ensure the learner is job-ready from day One. Courses are offered via live virtual classrooms as well as self-paced learning. Learners are given flexible hours to accommodate their hectic work schedule and review as per their pace, along with 24/7 technical and learning support. Furthermore, the company ensures it provides outcome-oriented training with industry-ready case studies. Therefore, top industry experts curate its content for best-in-class industry exposure through a practical hands-on approach. In addition, it is the only platform offering extensive career services by guiding webinars, profile building,

Gururo offers advanced courses in several categories - especially niche technologies - such as Project Management, Program Management, Technical Program Management, Big Data, Data Science, Machine Learning, Artificial Intelligence, Computer Science, Entrepreneurship, Innovation, etc. The company has also launched multiple courses in collaboration with top International and Indian universities such as IU International University of Applied Sciences, London south bank university, Rotman school of management, BSBI – Berlin School of Business and Innovation, and IITs, IIM, etc.

Currently, the company is looking to raise funds for its Series-A round. More about <http://gururo.com/>
