

Lyrical Finesse Highlighted by Ericka Howie in Her Debut Single "stay like that" Is Simply Unparalleled

Los Angeles artist Ericka Howie has released her new song "stay like that." With the song, the artist has opened up a world where creative boundaries don't exist.

Los Angeles, California Jun 14, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - The talent of composing multiple musical genres in one song is quite rare nowadays. However, neo-soul music artist Ericka Howie's debut song "stay like that" is defining the way how exactly it can be executed in the best manner possible. The song brings a charming and cheerful vibe to every listener tuning in to it. The tone of instrumentals blending with the artist's magical vocals instills a sense of refreshment. The simple and attractive nature of the lyrics is steadily winning the hearts of many listeners worldwide. The mellow-sounding synths supported by a groovy baseline and rhythm give the song a touch of creativity. Released just 3 days ago, the song is close to completing the 1k mark of streams on Spotify.

The Chennai-born Los Angeles-based songwriter has become an instant hit with her songwriting skills. The latest release doesn't seem at all to be the artist's first song as composing a track of this caliber needs experience. Hence, the artist has proven her worth and talent with this magical contribution. Alongside neo-soul, the elements of pop and R&B can also be felt in the beats of the song. The changing intensities of the artist's voice in the song remain the highlight of the song. The song is meant to awaken the happy selves of people as defined by the artist.

Ericka Howie has taken up the subject matter of reflecting on the happier times that people tend to take for granted. Therefore, the title of the song signifies the theme of the song even better. The artist is a very humble-heated person who has always believed in her musical abilities and is destined to shine in the upcoming music industry. The passion and the skill that has been presented by the artist with the song "stay like that" makes her stand out in the musical space of R&B, pop, and neo-soul.
