"We want to provide something useful for children in our very own community that are in need of a little help. There are so many families in the area who do not have the resources that others have, and we want to help them thrive. We hope that every student can start the 2022-2023 school year with a bang, having the tools they need to succeed," said Arianna Dabu, Publisher & Editor of Macaroni KID Fort Myers - Fort Myers Beach.
