New York City, New York Jun 23, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - An established plastic surgeon, Dr. White is affiliated with WPAHS Plastic Surgeons, working with patients at Allegheny General Hospital, and Wexford Health + Wellness Pavilion. He also serves as a Clinical Assistant Professor of Surgery at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine.

Graduating with his medical degree from the University of Wisconsin Medical School in 1980, he went on to further his training with a residency in general surgery at the University of Louisville Hospital and the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center. Finally, he completed his fellowship in plastic surgery at the Allegheny General Hospital.

Passionate about his profession, the doctor is board-certified in plastic surgery by the American Board of Plastic Surgery (ABPS). The mission of the ABPS is to promote safe, ethical, and efficacious plastic surgery to the public by maintaining high standards for the education, examination, certification, and continuous certification of plastic surgeons as specialists and subspecialists.

Plastic surgery is a surgical specialty involving the restoration, reconstruction, or alteration of the human body. It can be divided into two main categories - reconstructive surgery and cosmetic surgery. A plastic surgeon's primary responsibility is to perform surgical and non-surgical procedures, and they use a variety of reparative and reconstructive techniques to get the job done.
