Charlotte, North Carolina Jun 8, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Juanita Corry Jackson, CEO of Global Impact University Consulting of Charlotte, NC, is the visionary author of The Exchange. Coauthors, Jeanine Boston, Anika Parham Edelen, Angela Hope, Kendra Jackson, Berthanna Oxendine, Dr. Valerie Rogers, and Mitzy Parker Sanders.

What would you exchange in return for a different life than you have now? How long would you be willing to wait to experience that new life? Have you ever made an investment and it went up in value? You will be inspired, captivated, and surprised by eight women who finally risk everything in exchange for a promise from God.

Inside this book The Exchange – My Will for His Power, <https://amzn.to/3O0cYdx> you will be immersed in each woman's unique story, fascinating experiences, and priceless lessons learned. You will follow their journey through painful, confusing, and even heartbreaking times to become compassionate ministers, women of strength, and purpose-filled leaders.

Their authenticity, determination, and resilience will encourage you to consider what you may be holding onto when God offers you an opportunity to receive something of more excellent value. There is a strategy that involves time, risk, and pain if you want a better life. Within these pages are unique stories, just like the women who wrote them, of healing, moving forward, and God's transforming power. You will be saying, "Wow, that's unbelievable! Maybe I should take a risk and see what happens." What do you have to lose?

Meet the authors at the upcoming book signing event on June 25, 2022, from 4:00 PM EST to 6:00 PM EST at Urban Reader Book Store, 440 E. McCullough Dr. STE A130 Charlotte, NC 28262
