

OC Wellness Solutions Releases a Vegan Organic Self Tanner

OC Wellness Solutions is a leader in Vegan Organic Skincare Products

Los Angeles, California Jun 28, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - OC Wellness Solutions has formulated a Vegan Self Tanning lotion. This unique organic formulation is hydrating and provides a healthy-looking tan without any need to expose skin to damaging rays from the sun.

Skin damage and certain types of cancer can result from extended exposure to the sun. A great alternative is to use a moisturizing self-tanner so that you can look healthy and tanned during summer.

OC Wellness Solutions creates healthy skin nourishing formulations that are 100% vegan and cruelty-free. They produce a range of skincare products including toner, serum and moisturizer.

They are located in Southern California and they manufacture all of their products. They have a strong online presence, and a retail store and they sell their products through various spas, chiropractors, and retail outlets. To find a location close to you, please visit their store locator. You can also purchase online by clicking here.
