Artist Q.U.E.S. released his latest song, ‘Letter 2 Pops’. Creative, hypnotic, and transcending in every respect, the track creates an immersive pop and hip-hop arena.

Kansas City, Kansas Jun 10, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Artist Q.U.E.S. has come up with his latest release, 'Letter 2 Pops'. The song is one of the most impressive songs of all recent releases. The artist has shown his utmost versatility to make the song so prolific in style. It features Brandoshis, another figure of versatility and dedication. They both have together made the song an enhanced piece of music. They pay tribute to his father Floyd, who was the backbone of his musical interest. His father who he has remembered through the song is also his inspiration for pursuing music. The song, mainly, is based on hip-hop music. However, the elements of pop music, R&B, and reggae have enriched the song with more qualitative layers.

The use of highly immersive beats and engaging instruments has kept the song buzzing throughout. The listeners will get something different from the song. It has the energy of hip-hop music and melody like pop music. The fusion of the two genres has created an immersive atmosphere for the song, which is emotive and enthusiastic. The collaboration with Brandoshis seems to be effective as the artist has given the best one can imagine from him. The more you listen to it, the more attracted you feel to the song. It will make you feel every beat and sound it has designed.

Creative, hypnotic, and transcending in every respect, the song gives an escapism vibe. The singers have complemented each other's styles. When versatility meets with skills this kind of song is produced. More than anything, it is the lyrics that have attracted the audiences. Within just a few days, the song has drawn the attention of thousands of listeners on YouTube. Although the artist is new on YouTube, audiences have accepted him for his detailed craftsmanship. The song is proof of his versatility, dedication, and craftsmanship. So, check the music video 'Letter 2 Pops' out on YouTube. He has many more to show in the future.
