New York City, New York Jun 2, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A determined anesthesiologist, Dr. Cruz is in practice at Steward Palmetto General Hospital in Hialeah, Florida.

Steward Palmetto General Hospital is part of the Advanced Neuroscience Network, a system of medical professionals and hospitals focused on providing a full continuum of neurological care throughout South Florida. This network gives Palmetto General access to a vast resource of knowledge and experience, to ensure the best results for neurology care.

Pertaining to his educational pursuits, Dr. Cruz earned his medical degree from the Universidad Iberoamericana in 2009 and completed his residency in anesthesiology at the University of Puerto Rico School of Medicine in 2016.

Anesthesiology is the medical specialty concerned with the total perioperative care of patients before, during, and after surgery. It encompasses anesthesia, intensive care medicine, critical emergency medicine, and pain medicine. Anesthesiologists have the primary responsibility of monitoring the patient's vital signs during surgery. In addition to basic measurements such as pulse, blood pressure, and temperature, they measure the patient's respiration.
