New York City, New York Jun 15, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A devoted physician, Dr. Clark provides psychiatric services for the community of Anchorage, Alaska.

Beginning her professional pursuits at the Meharry Medical College, she went on to further her training with a residency in psychiatry at the Virginia Commonwealth University, where she served as a Chief Resident in 2021.

A proud member of the American Psychiatric Association, the doctor attained board certification in psychiatry through the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (ABPN). The ABPN is a not-for-profit corporation dedicated to serving the professions of psychiatry and neurology.

Psychiatry is the medical specialty devoted to the diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of mental disorders. These include various maladaptations related to mood, behavior, cognition, and perceptions. Psychiatrists evaluate, diagnose, and treat patients with mental, emotional, and behavioral disorders. They conduct thorough psychiatric evaluations, develop treatment plans, prescribe medication, and evaluate treatment results.

On a more personal note, Dr. Clark attributes her success to a wonderful support system. In her free time, she enjoys baking and exercising.
