

Tanupriya Kalita, a poetess from Northeast awarded in literature by Foxclues

Delhi, India Jun 11, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - 30th May: Foxclues has released the winner list of Top 100 authors for the award India Prime Top 100 Author Award for the year 2022.

The awardees include professors, scientists, noted novelists, and poets from around the country.

In the literature category, Tanupriya Kalita, a poet from Assam, Northeast India has been conferred with this prestigious award for her poetry book Emuthi Sagar. Along with Tanupriya Kalita, 42 other noted personalities in literature won this award.

In the teaching category, Prof. Dowluru SVGK Kaladhar who is Professor and Head of the Department of Microbiology and Bioinformatics Department in, Atal Bihari Vajpayee University, Bilaspur was honoured with this award for this extraordinary contribution to teaching. Apart from Prof. Kaladhar, 42 other professors and teachers were honoured with this award.

In the science and research category, Dr.R.Guha Pradeepa was honoured. She is a Senior Scientist and Head of Research Operations at the Madras Diabetes Research Foundation (MDRF), Chennai, India. Apart from Dr. Pradeepa 24 other researchers and scientists were honoured with this award.

It is really inspiring fact that Tanupriya Kalita, who belongs to Assam, Northeast has won this award, thereby holding the flag of northeast India on the national platform.

Reference:

Legend News

UP 18 NEWS

Media Contact

Author News

viram.singh.rathod.1970@gmail.com

Source : Tanupriya Kalita

See on IssueWire